

Team 52E in Quest for Peace and Development

The 52nd Engineer Brigade, Philippine Army envision to a progressive country by means of total commitment to the service of country and people. It is a service beyond call of duty. The demand of working beyond normal hours even adverse conditions. . . just to accomplish the mission. It has accomplished numerous of projects that have paved the way for the betterment of lives of thousand of beneficiaries.

Team 52EBde was served to the true to his vision as a proud Engineer unit capable of excellence in carrying mission as an instrument for other people and other leaders for effective and efficient in promoting peace and development in the area of coverage (AOC). This display of commitment and giving respect and regards the Team 52EBde, PA also created a feeling of sincerity to the members of the community.

Finally, the immediate completion of strategic road projects and other infrastructures are vital and urgently needed for the promotion of peace and development. This will showcased the commitment of the unit to facilitate the vertical and horizontal constructions in the area of operations in support to socio-economic development of the local and national government and fruitfully hoping that sooner or later, the people are free from the bondage of absolute poverty. With high hopes, the vision of bringing genuine peace and stability in the part of the region will not come to naught. With quality service and high performance, consistent with his motto “To build not destroy, to bring happiness not sorrow” the unit is confident to attain its quest for peace and development.